If you know Not ask those that know

The Question reads dated 20 May 2023:

It has been well documented that the Asad Regime of Syria committed atrocities and killings of Sunni Muslims,

What is the Sharia ruling regarding (A) Our Muslim leaders accepting and inviting him to the Arab League?
(B) Asad is a self-proclaim Nusayri Alawi...Does a Sunni Muslim regard him as a brother in Islam
(C) What is the status of members of the Arab League allowing Asad back, entertaining him as a brother?

Responses

Jamiat SA	No Response
Mufti Menk	No response
Ml Sulieman Moola	No Response
Mufti Bham	No Response
UUCSA	Respected Br F Desai - May Allah reward you for your care and concern, kindly note that the United Ulama Council of South Africa (UUCSA) is an umbrella body of Ulama formations of different persuasions and is not a homogenous council of scholars. We therefore do not have an, independent Darul Ifta. We suggest that you forward your query to your regional Ulama body which is best to give you a "sharia ruling" pertainng to your queries. Wasalaam Y Patel
Faris al - Hammadi Social Scholar	Blocked - No Answer
Sh. Asim al-Hakim Social Scholar	Blocked - No Answer
Sh Abu Mussab Wajdi- Social Scholar & Media influencer	Blocked - No Answer

It is clear that our Scholars will ONLY address matters that suits them. But Why?
One must wonder, now, that the Assad Regime has fallen, what is their take and Sharia Rulings? What are they waiting for?